

Breakfast/Lunch Cook

Circle Z Ranch is now hiring a breakfast/lunch cook for our 2016-2017 guest season. This position will begin October 21st and end May 14, 2017. We are looking for an energetic, self-starter with experience cooking in a restaurant, at another guest ranch, or in catering. The ideal candidate will be flexible, able to follow a schedule and menu, possess good time management, and have good communication skills. We like to remind all of our employees of Ranch style team work, as we expect everyone to fill in as needed to help our ranch succeed.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Prepare and cook meals (breakfast and lunch) established by Head Cook
- Bake breads, pastries, etc., and prepare salads and desserts
- Help get appropriate food ready for Picnics/Chuckwagon
- Serve meals to guests and answer food inquiries during mealtimes.
- Help set up Buffet Style Breakfast and Lunch meals.
- Assist kitchen staff to insure the cleanliness and orderliness of all kitchen and commissary areas
- Assist Head Cook in unloading provision trucks that arrive twice weekly

Attend Staff and department meetings

GENERAL:

- Ability to be flexible and follow direction from ranch management
- Strong and positive communication skills

- Attend staff and department meetings
- Any staff member may be asked to supervise children during meals.

The above list is not all-inclusive. The duties and responsibilities of this position may be changed from time to time by the ranch

Physical Requirements:

Standing, walking, lifting up to 50 lbs., climbing, stooping, kneeling, seeing, crouching, crawling, reaching, speaking and hearing. Must be able to reach with arms extended above head for periods of time.

The position requires excellent physical condition and stamina. Hours tend to be irregular and long. Extended periods of work without time off may be required.

Specific skills required:

Ability to understand and follow oral and written directions

Education/Experience:

High School Diploma or GED